

Cosmetics Europe Conference 2014

Cosmetics at the Crossroads of Science and Regulation

10 - 11 June 2014

Join your colleagues at the Cosmetics Europe Conference 2014!

Held at the heart of Europe in Brussels, this must-attend conference brings together international industry and regulatory leaders to discuss emerging scientific and regulatory trends and challenges in the cosmetics industry.

Participants will look at critical developments that could directly impact cosmetics legislation across the value chain through in-depth presentations and interactive break-out sessions.

Cosmetics Europe is a unique interface between the industry and European regulators. Its daily work lies in the interaction between both and as such, Cosmetics Europe is in a position to go beyond the understanding of current requirements, anticipating and foreseeing future trends.

Participants will explore:

- Trends and challenges in safety assessment and regulation for cosmetics
- Public-private partnerships in research for alternative methods to Animal Testing
- The EU Cosmetics Regulation and future developments
- Legal responsibilities in the value chain
- Global trends in cosmetics regulation

Speakers include:

Martin Seychell, Deputy Director General for Consumers and Health, Health and Consumers, European Commission

Prof. Arnd Hoeveler, Head of Unit, Novel Medical Developments, Research and Innovation, European Commission

Dr. Horst Wenck, Corporate Vice-President Front End Innovation, Beiersdorf

Beta Montemayor, Director, Environmental Science and Regulation at CCTFA (Canadian Cosmetic, Toiletry and Fragrance Association)
